

Unit 1: My senses

Vocabulary:

sight

taste

touch

smell

hearing

skin

iris

tongue

Structures:

Sense of sight: We use our sense of sight to see everything around us.

Sense of hearing: We use our sense of hearing to hear things.

Sense of taste: We use our sense of taste to taste things.

Sense of smell: We use our sense of smell to smell things

Sense of touch: We use our sense of touch to feel things.

Activities:

1. Using your book, classify.

Cornea- Outer ear-Nostril- Retina- Eardrum- Pupil-Hammer- Tongue- Iris- Anvil-Lens -Stirrup- Optic nerve- Cochlea- Auditory nerve- Taste receptor cells-Nasal Cavity- Taste buds- Olfactory nerve
Sense of Sight	Sense of Hearing	Sense of Taste	Sense of Smell

2.-Read the sentences and decide if they are good or bad habits.

- Keep a book close to your eyes.
- Spend too much time watching T.V.
- Brush your teeth after each meal.
- Don't use cream in the summer.

- Go to the dentist once a year.
- Eat vegetables.
- Eat sweets every day.
- Don't keep your ears clean.